Exposition Aftermath.

The "lights are out," the gates closed and the Jamestown Exposition is a thing of the past. The most interesting and important historic event ever celebrated in the history of the nation, it should have been a gratifying and brilliant success, but its management has been so stained and scarred by grievous mistakes and unpardonable mismanagement that it opened and closed in dire ill failure. Before one begins to build ordinary prudence says, "count the co-t," and this seems to have been strangely ignored. A modicum of forethought should have said to those in charge "the 26th of April does'nt mean the 26th of July" and to invite a nation of people to a feast when had not been made ready meant a national protest against the whole affair. The exposition never recovered from the wet-blanket shock of opening day. No amount of advertising, nor promises of better things could drive away with first impressions. The rumor ran riot over the land that the James own Exposition was looking backwards rather than forward, was historic rather than futuristic," a dreamer rather than a doer of things. The result being that the great West has been conspicuously absent from the show and left to Virginia, well nigh its entire support. This has been cheerfully, liberally and loyally given.

And opening day blunder was followed by a family feud, and that led to more than one change of commanders in presence of the enemy and while the battle raged and to mismanagement the further fact that money solemnly promised was'nt paid and that clamorous and unsatisfied creditors contributed to the confusion, we are not surprised that a cloud should have settled down on an undertaking which should have been radiant with the sunshine of success. Norfolk when she won over Richmond, the honor of holding the exposition, was justly and greatly elated, but if the verdict of her people could now be had a large majority of them would agree that instead of a prize they drew a blank. We have been told that private ventures there, the outgrowth of the exposition, have imposed a loss far exceeding a million dollars, and we were actually shocked to learn that even the street railways have made no money. We had imagined that they would have coined it. The business of the city received no new impetus, and the great influx of Westerners who were expected first to see the show and then invest in city or country property, failed to respond. Reports of opening-day emptiness destroyed the prospects of all succeeding days so that from start to finish failure was written upon well nigh every step taken.

Our history, however, is safe, and while we may not know just how to run expositions, we do know how to work our mines and our farms, to make our homes happier, our cities larger and of all Virginia, the garden spot of America. Exposition failure on Virginia soil will not become elastic.

"Japan has seized another island in the Pacific," says the New York Herald. Why should Japan invariably "seize" those islands? Nobody is at all apt to interfere.

BIG OFFER.

We call the attention of our readers to a remarkable club offer we are making in another column for the winter's reading. We are offering a value of $2.50 for $1.00. We hope all our old friends who have gotten in arrears will take advantage of this offer and pay up in advance for the paper. Be sure to read the offer.

"We do not share the belief of some Democratic authorities that Mr. Bryan has no strength with the voters. We are sure he is strong enough to beat a Knox or a Fairbanks. He would not be easy for a Taft or any other legate candidate to beat. Mr. Watterson, who thinks Bryan is no great shakes as a runner, still believes the Commoner could beat Theodore Roosevelt on the third term issue. Nobody can tell about that, but at least it is safe to say that Bryan will put up such a fight if nominated as no Republican could afford to despise.

Something seems to have gotten tangled with the Taft boom.

A "conservative" Roosevelt seems almost as unlucky as a "talkless" Roosevelt.

"How would it do for Roosevelt to resign?" asks the Nashville American. Well, it wouldn't injure the health of Senator Foraker to any great extent.

When speaking of the "working classes," it might be well for orators to indicate whether they mean those who work for a living or those who work those who work for a living.

Now that the prohibition movement has assumed such magnitude that it is attracting the politicians, the really sincere and honest workers in that cause, may well take counsel with themselves.

One statistician has discovered that there has been a 40 per cent decrease in the cost of funerals, but it will be just like perverse humanity to neglect this opportunity to get 'em while they're cheap.

Mr. Bryan says nine-tenths of the republicans in this country are really democrats. Possibly this can be verified, the very next time a genuine d mocrat is nominated for President.

Omohundro.

Mr. and Mrs. Omohundro and little son, Tip, returned from Albemarle Monday, where they attended the celebration of Mr. Omohundro's father's eighty-first birthday.

It was quite a family reunion at Mr. W. P. Johnson's on Sunday last. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Moon and Mrs. W. W. Pryor, of Dillwyn, Mrs. A. H. Taylor and little daughter, Martie, of Roanoke, and Misses Mary and Florence Kyle.

Miss Louise Omohundro has accepted a position at Mrs. E. P. Robertson's as a private teacher.

We are glad to report that Miss Ida Johnson is out again after being hurt badly by a horse some weeks ago.

Mrs. Julia F. Ragland returned from the Hill City Thursday.

Miss Lillie Ragland is visiting her sister at Schuyler this week.

Christmas is fast approaching. Hope Santa Claus will call on us all.

Toga.

There has been a good many hunters around here for the past week. Mr. Van Gilliam and some others killed a deer last Wednesday. Rev J. H. Harris killed a fine one last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Lewis are visiting friends near this place.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. T. S. Day and his wife are going to leave the country soon. They are good people and will have friends wherever they go.

Mrs. Mary F. Rush and Miss Annie Rush left here yesterday on their way to Charlottesville where they expect to spend the winter.

Mr. J. E. Rush has been right sick for the past week but is better today. Hope he will soon be well again.

Farmers are busy hauling their tobacco to market. Some of them report good prices.

BACKACHE—
"I wrote you for advice," writes Lelia Hagood, of Sylvia, Tenn., "about my terrible backache and monthly pains in my abdomen and shoulders. I had suffered this way nine years and five doctors had failed to relieve me. On your advice I took Wine of Cardui, which at once relieved my pains and now I am entirely cured. I am sure that Cardui saved my life."
It is a safe and reliable remedy for all female diseases, such as periodical pains, irregularity, dragging down sensations, headache, dizziness, backache, etc.

Dear Sir—I had some of your tablets sent to me, L. E. Hall, of Minneapolis, Minn., and he is a brother in Canada very sick with bladder trouble. I told him about your tablets. He would like to have a box sent to him. You will find 50 cents stamps for same inclosed herewith. His address is Jase Bank, St. Clements, Canada.
CATHERINE SCHULTZ,
33 Main Street.
My tablets are purely vegetable and I can prove that they have cured more people of kidney disease, bladder trouble and rheumatism than any other medicine in the world. More than one hundred thousand people have used them during the last three years and been benefited. We put them at a price within the reach of every one, 25c, 50c and $1 per box, and we pay the postage.

FINAL WIND UP SALE.

A little over one year ago we decided to retire from the clothing business and placed on sale our entire stock of clothing, etc., amounting to about $85,000.00 after our fall stock came in. We have quietly reduced it about $60,000·00, there remaining about and we are determined to make a clean sweep by cutting prices one half. We own our stock at 40 per cent. less than same quality could be bought today. You can buy at this wind-up sale an all wool suit for less than a cotton suit will cost you elsewhere. We are determined to make this our final closing out sale, and in order to do this quickly we have marked our clothing in plain figures and you can buy it at half price. Every article in our store will be put in this sale and at prices you cannot afford to miss.

Our books are closed and not an article will be charged at these prices, as they are for CASH ONLY. No such low prices as these were ever seen in Lynchburg. Our store will be closed from TUESDAY the 26th, to SATURDAY morning the 30th at 8:30 o'clock. Come early and get first choice.

Commissioner's Sale of Two Good Farms in Appotox County.

In pursuance of a decree or the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, rendered at its November term, 1907, in the Chancery suit of Morris &c. vs Goodman &c., I will offer for sale at public auction at the front door of the first mentioned court at Hilltop Depot, on Saturday, the 14th day of December, 1907, the following real estate.

FIRST—A tract of land containing 325 acres more or less, situated on Big Creek, at present spring station on the Norfolk and western Railway in one of the very best country neighborhoods in the State. The tract is the present residence of Alonzo Morris, and is well watered by Big Creek, Island Creek, as well as watered by a never failing spring. It is well timbered and has upon it a comfortable dwelling house of six rooms, kitchen and well in the yard, 2 good tobacco barns, stable, corn house, and small orchard. Also about 50 acres of the tract is in cultivation and the balance is well timbered. About forty acres of this tract is the present residence of Alonzo Morris, and is well watered by Big Creek, Island Creek, as well as watered by a never failing spring. It is well timbered and has upon it a comfortable dwelling house of six rooms, kitchen and well in the yard, 2 good tobacco barns, stable, corn house, and small orchard. About
